

Biography

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY MANAGER MILTON CARTWRIGHT JR.

Milton Cartwright Jr. joined the National Indian Gaming Commission July 2021 with over twenty years of IT leadership and management experience. He serves as the Information Technology Manager for the Division of Technology. As the IT manager, Cartwright Jr. manages and oversees day-to-day IT operations of common systems infrastructure services, to include cloud-computing, email, network, communications while leading technology-driven projects for the agency.

Before joining NIGC, Cartwright Jr. served as the IT Director at the Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division. His role consisted of coaching, mentoring, and providing technical guidance to the IT Business Office Team. He also analyzed, and formulated budgets as well as provided expertise to advance strategic roadmap development and implementation. His experience includes expertise in Office of Management Budget mandated requirements, cloud migration projects, and Federal Information Security Management Act (FISMA) certification and accreditation (C&A) activities.

Cartwright Jr. earned the DOJ Meritorious Award for Superior Performance of Duties, as well as the Special Achievement Award for Sustained Superior Performance of Duty.

Cartwright Jr. is a graduate of Athens State University, Athens, Alabama where he received a Bachelor of Science in Management of Technology. His job-related certifications and training include Contracting Officer's Representative (COR) Level 2, Microsoft Certified System Engineer (MCSE) and Project Management Professional (PMP) training.

The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act created the National Indian Gaming Commission to support tribal self-sufficiency and the integrity of Indian gaming. NIGC oversees the efficient regulation of 524 gaming establishments operated by 248 tribes across 29 states.

Updated 9/16/2021