TRAINING MANAGER STEVEN E. BREWER

Steve Brewer is the Training Manager for National Indian Gaming Commission and has held this position since October 2015. The training manager manages the training program for the agency which includes both internal and external training and technical assistance in line with the strategic plan and commission initiative of developing a strong workforce both internally and externally. Steve has over 17 years of gaming experience and brings to the agency a unique skill set that has positioned him well as the manager of the training program.

Steve started his career with the NIGC back in December 2008 as an auditor, where he conducted audits of the MICS and commission regulations. Prior to that Steve worked for a tribe under the Tribal Gaming Regulatory Authority where he held a myriad of positions, from licensing, to compliance officer to compliance supervisor to the internal auditor. Prior to that Steve served in the U.S. Army where he spent 22 years active and reserve as a Military Policeman, where he conducted combat support operations and law enforcement duties including as a certified trainer and has worked in a myriad of roles within the U.S. Army.

While serving in the U.S. Army Steve has received numerous decorations and accommodations, during his career both stateside and overseas.

Steve holds a Bachelor's of Science in Accounting and Business Administration, and a Master's in Business Administration and is a certified fraud examiner (CFE).

The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act created the National Indian Gaming Commission to support tribal self-sufficiency and the integrity of Indian gaming. The NIGC has developed four initiatives to support its mission including (1) To protect against anything that amounts to gamesmanship on the backs of tribes; (2) To stay ahead of the Technology Curve; (3) Rural outreach; and (4) To maintain a strong workforce within NIGC and with its tribal regulatory partners. NIGC oversees the efficient regulation of 506 gaming establishments operated by 244 tribes across 29 states. The Commission's dedication to compliance with the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act ensures the integrity of the growing $31.2 billion Indian gaming industry.
