AUDIT MANAGER DANIEL CATCHPOLE

Daniel Catchpole has been the Audit Manager of the National Indian Gaming Commission since May 2018. He oversees the Audit Team in developing training material, conducting Internal Control Assessments, providing technical assistance and training, assisting in the performance of investigations, compiling yearly Gross Gaming Revenues from submitted annual audited financial statements, performing analysis of the financial statements and Agreed Upon Procedures (AUP) reports for assessment of technical assistance, all to ensure regulatory compliance, gaming integrity and that tribes are the primary beneficiaries of their gaming revenues.

He has been with the Commission for over 19 years and was an Auditor prior to becoming the Audit Manager. Over the years, he has received various awards including Presenter of the Year.

Catchpole has a Bachelors Degree of Science in Accounting from Central Washington University in Ellensburg, Washington. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE).

The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act created the National Indian Gaming Commission to support tribal self-sufficiency and the integrity of Indian gaming. The NIGC has developed four initiatives to support its mission including (1) To protect against anything that amounts to gamesmanship on the backs of tribes; (2) To stay ahead of the Technology Curve; (3) Rural outreach; and (4) To maintain a strong workforce within NIGC and with its tribal regulatory partners. NIGC oversees the efficient regulation of 506 gaming establishments operated by 246 tribes across 29 states. The Commission's dedication to compliance with the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act ensures the integrity of the growing $32.4 billion Indian gaming industry.
